Monsters going to the Earth

Today is a special day for the monsters because they were going on their first trip to the Earth. The aliens were happy!

The aliens' teacher told them how to behave on the Earth. In the restaurant, we shouldn't treat the waiters impolitely. At the bus stop, we should line up patiently. In the cinema, we shouldn't eat or drink loudly. The aliens were worried because they had to behave well.

In the end, they decided to come to the Earth next year!
