The Aliens' First Trip to the Earth

Today was an exciting day for the aliens. Teacher Doodle told them they had a trip to the Earth. They were so excited that they all clapped their hands and cheered excitedly. Teacher Doodle also taught them what they should do or shouldn't do on the Earth. "When you are in the restaurant, you should sit properly and wait patiently for food. And when you are in the cinema, you shouldn't talk loudly or play with your friends," said Teacher Doodle. Everyone listened carefully.

Suddenly, Cindy said sadly, "But I always like to play with my friends." Teacher Doodle told Cindy she could play with her friends after the trip. Roger felt worried and asked, "Will the humans hurt us? Are they kind?" Everyone felt unhappy and scared. Teacher Doodle encouraged them to be calm and taught them how to get on with the humans. Finally, all aliens were excited and were looking forward to visiting the earth and meeting humans.
