It was a bad day today. I was very sad and angry because I found out that my classmate, Fiona copied my English homework at recess. She was so dishonest. I asked her why she copied my homework, but she didn't answer me. She was rude. Then, I quarreled with her. After school, she said some bad words to me. I was so upset that I did not want to talk to her again. We are not friends anymore.

I went to school early in the morning. I was still angry at Fiona. When I came to my classroom, Fiona came to me and tried to apologize for having been rude. I was very shocked because we quarreled and she was mean to me yesterday. 'I should not be rude or copy your homework. I am sorry. Can you forgive me, Ruby?' said Fiona.

I thought Fiona really knew she was wrong yesterday. I replied, 'Ok! I believe you! If you do not be rude or dishonest, I will forgive you. We are the best of friends and happy now.
