Dear Tim,

I have a busy life in Hong Kong. Let me tell you about my day. I usually get up at seven thirty in the morning. Then, I brush my teeth and have breakfast at seven forty. I pack my school bag at eight o'clock. Next, I go to school by bus. After school, I study with my tutor at four o'clock in the afternoon.

In the evening, I watch TV with my family at eight fifteen after dinner. After that, I go to bed at nine forty-five at night.

What do you do at weekends? Hope to hear from you soon.

Yours,

Billy
