

Aplichau Kaifong Primary School

5A Tsang Kak Sze, Carson

Free Rice Boxes for the Needy

Mr Kwong is an owner of a restaurant. He is very kind and always cares for the poor. He remembers that when he was young, he had no food to eat one day and was hungry on the street when a kind person gave him a rice box. With that experience, he believes that there is always hope in life. The only thing he needs to do is 'never give up'.

Now he runs a small restaurant. His business is not good because of the pandemic. However, he keeps on giving out rice boxes to the old and the poor at this difficult time. 'There is always someone in need of these rice boxes. My business is difficult now, but someone is in a more difficult situation than me. I need to help them as much as I can.'

He gives out two hundred lunchboxes every day to the old and the poor every week. Those people just need to go over to his restaurant and ask.

'I feel happy when I can help people in need.' Mr Kwong always says.

What do you think of Mr Kwong?

Do you agree that he is kind and caring?

(197 words)